

Alt text for image files - Choice and Compassion comic

Cover page

Comic cover showing a nurse offering a drink to a man outside a care home. Title reads “Choice & Compassion: Dementia Care Stories”.

David – Part 1

Eight-panel comic about a care worker supporting David, a man with Alzheimer’s, to make his own choice about going for a walk on a cold day.

David – Part 2

Eight-panel comic showing David’s partner Alan learning that David can still make his own decisions, and that care staff respect his choices.

Amina – Part 1

Eight-panel comic introducing Amina, who uses communication cards to express herself when asked to join a bingo game at the care home.

Amina – Part 2

Eight-panel comic where Amina’s carers realise she declined bingo because of her faith, and they support her in choosing another activity.

Maggie – Part 1

Seven-panel comic about Maggie, who has late-stage dementia, and how her daughter and care staff discuss her meal preferences.

Maggie – Part 2

Four-panel comic showing care staff adjusting Maggie’s diet to match her love of sweet foods and focusing on her wellbeing and preferences.

Back page

Final page showing the main characters with a summary about supporting independence and dignity in dementia care, plus project credits and logos.