

The University
Of Sheffield.

Journalism
Studies.

International Journalism Week 2017

Welcome to our sixth annual International Journalism Week, which takes place from 6 to 10 November 2017. Many thanks for joining us.

The theme of the week this time will be Journalism in High-Risk Environments. Please see the following pages for details of the programme.

@sheffjournalism

#ijw17

Monday 6 November

10–11am Welcome to International Journalism Week

St George's
Church LT1

Professor Marie Kinsey
Joint head, Department of Journalism Studies

Dr Emma Heywood
Lecturer in Journalism, Politics & Communication

2–3pm Hate Speech

The Diamond
LT1

Chris Elliott
Former Readers' Editor of The Guardian;
board member of the Ethical Journalism Network

Tuesday 7 November

10–11am Journalism Under Attack

The Diamond
LT4

Professor Jackie Harrison
Joint head, Department of Journalism Studies
Chair, Centre for Freedom of the Media

1–2pm Rachael Jolley
Editor, Index on Censorship

The Diamond
LT4

2–4pm Case study workshops

9 Mappin St
G02 and G12

Wednesday 8 November

12 noon–1pm Risk in Journalism

The Diamond
LT3 Chris Kemp
Head of High Risk, BBC

2–3pm Turkey: Freedom of Expression in the Dock

The Diamond
LT3 Sarah Clarke
International Policy and Advocacy Manager,
PEN International

Thursday 9 November

11am–12 noon Whose Story is it Anyway? Covering Syria in the Digital Age

The Diamond
LT3 Lindsey Hilsum
International Editor, Channel 4 News

2–3pm Defending press freedom around the world: global threats and challenges

The Diamond
LT7 Rebecca Vincent
UK Bureau Director, Reporters Without Borders

4–5pm Case study presentations

5–6pm

The Diamond
LT3

Friday 10 November

12 noon–1pm Reporting in Russia

The Diamond Jack Stubbs
LT2 Moscow correspondent, Reuters

Followed by

Presentations of case study awards

3–4pm Legal and Ethical Challenges to Investigative Journalism

Sir Henry
Stephenson Gill Phillips
building LT1 Director of Editorial and Legal Services, The Guardian

Details of the programme may change without notice. This version is correct as at 6 November 2017.