

UNIVERSITY OF SHEFFIELD
Centre for
19th-Century Studies

WORKSHOP:

SCIENCE, ART AND LITERATURE IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY

Monday 22nd April, 12-4pm
Jessop West Exhibition Space (G.01b)

Research Papers (12-2pm)

Professor Mary Orr (University of Southampton):

'Sarah Bowdich's Jardin des Plantes: An Englishwoman's Insider
Scientific View, 1818-1832'

Professor Martin Willis (University of Westminster):

'George Eliot and Medicine: Genre Writing and Pastoral Care'

Dr Helena Ifill (University of Sheffield):

'Monomania in Medical, Journalistic and Sensational Literature'

(BREAK & REFRESHMENTS: 2-2.30)

Discussion Group (2.30-4pm)

Reading materials chosen by the three speakers will be circulated in advance of the session.

If you would like to attend the Discussion Group then please email Dr
Geraldine Lawless (g.lawless@sheffield.ac.uk) to receive the reading.

ALL WELCOME!

(Feel free to attend one or both parts of the workshop)