

UNIVERSITY OF SHEFFIELD
Centre for 19th-Century Studies

AUTUMN SEMESTER 2012-13

JESSOP WEST EXHIBITION SPACE

5PM

Monday 15th October

In collaboration with the School of Languages and Cultures

Dr Kirsty Hooper (Warwick)

"'Nothing's Painful in the Exhibition': The Failed Earl's Court Spanish Exhibition of 1889 in the Popular Press."

Monday 29th October

Reading Group: 'Great Expectations? Social Mobility and Debt'

Reading: Dickens, Great Expectations and selected newspaper articles from the period.*

Monday 12th November

Dr Holly Furneaux (Leicester)

Title tbc

Monday 3rd December

Reading Group: 'In the Valley of Death: The Crimean War in Poetry and the Press'

Reading: Tennyson's Charge of the Light Brigade and Maud, with selected war reports, photographs and cartoons from newspapers.*

ALSO OF INTEREST:

Monday 26th November, 5.00pm, Humanities Research Institute, Gell Street

Hispanic Studies Annual Galdós Lecture

Stephen Roberts (University of Nottingham)

'Galdós and 1812'

To join the Centre of Nineteenth-Century Studies mailing list please email Dr Anna Barton
(a.j.barton@sheffield.ac.uk)

Visit the Centre of Nineteenth-Century Studies website (<http://c19.group.shef.ac.uk/>) or follow us on Twitter (@C19Sheffield)

*Reading group material will be circulated in advance using this mailing list. For further information please contact Dr Jack Rhoden (rhoden1985@hotmail.com)