

THE STORYBOARD

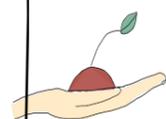

The storyboard is a crucial part of the planning and process of making a video. It is a visualisation and planning tool that helps us to think about how to tell a story using pictures or moving images. We incorporate different shot types and scenes into a storyboard and put them in order.

Visualisation & Planning tool

Helps you plan your shot types

Each shot is a decision

Use it to think about how & why you will use a shot type

