

Global Conference for Higher Education Chaplaincies
13–17 June 2022

Three Religion or Belief Equalities Day Conferences 14 / 15 / 16 June 2022 IACHE 2022, University of Sheffield, England

These day conferences are relevant to leaders and managers in H.E. and chaplaincy staff both in universities and from a variety of sectors. They sit within the 5-day IACHE 2022 global conference.

Each day conference looks, in turn, from a higher education perspective, at how religion or belief equalities and chaplaincy intersect with topics including, health and wellbeing, disability, spirituality, anti-racism, good relations, conflict and the post-secular university.

The conferences take place at the University of Sheffield, plus a Wednesday trip to the National Holocaust Memorial and Museum during Day Conference (2).

To book go to the Booking Page, and once in the Online Store choose options 09 or 10 or 11 and select the relevant day conference. Also available, accommodation from £41, and evening events.

Religion or Belief Equalities Day Conference (1) on, Liberty, Health & Wellbeing, Disability and Spirituality:

How religion or belief equalities and chaplaincy intersect with health and wellbeing, disability and the virtual and spiritual self

9am to 4pm Tuesday 14th June 2022

£100 standard, £60 scholarship, £48 student

Religion or Belief Equalities Day Conference (2) on, Legacy, Anti-Hate, Anti-Racism and Good Relations: How religion or belief equalities and chaplaincy intersect with peaceful campus dialogue in the context of anti-hate and anti-racism. Including a visit to the National Holocaust Memorial and Museum

8.30am to 9pm, Wednesday 15 June 2022

£90 standard, £60 scholarship, £51 student

Religion or Belief Equalities Day Conference (3), on Leadership, Conflict, and the Post-Secular University: how religion or belief equalities and chaplaincy intersect with conflict resolution, the non-religious majority, and secular institutions

9.15am to 5.15pm Thursday 16th June 2022

£100 standard, £60 scholarship, £48 student

Contact information: please email iache2022@sheffield.ac.uk

The Edge, Endcliffe Village, University of Sheffield
IACHE 2022 Global Conference, Liberty, Legacy, Leadership

Religion or Belief Equalities Day Conference (1) on,
Liberty, Health & Wellbeing, Disability and Spirituality:
how religion or belief equalities and chaplaincy intersect with health and wellbeing, disability and the virtual and spiritual self

9am to 4pm Tuesday 14th June 2022

£100 standard, £60 scholarship, £48 student

This day conference has a focus on health and wellbeing, disability and spirituality, and sits within the higher education IACHE 2022 global conference. It will be relevant to leaders and managers in H.E. and chaplaincy staff both in universities and from a variety of sectors.

Keynotes	Topic	University
Jana Bennett	Religion, disability and embodiment in a virtual world	Dayton, USA
Lindsay van Dijk	Non-religious provision and faith-based chaplaincy	Middlesex, UK
Harold Koenig	The relevance of spirituality to good mental health	Duke, USA

Morning Workshops 14.06

Maggie Commins and		Queens, USA
Joey Haynes	Experiential learning on the U.S.-Mexican border	Queens, USA
Mahmood Chandia	Training Muslim Chaplains: researching outcomes	UCLAN, UK
Vineet Chander	Hindu Chaplaincy reshaping inter-religious work	Princeton, USA
David E. MacDonald	Spiritual Direction with Emerging Adults	Ohio N, USA
Hosea Kiprono Mitei	Building Leadership and Combating Extremism	Nairobi, Kenya

Mid-day Workshops 14.06

Panel discussion	The Future of Muslim Chaplaincy
Andii Bowsher	A ministry of spiritual direction to a university?	Northumbria, UK
Jenny Morgans	Christian women's experiences of chaplaincy	KCL, UK
Christine Schardt	Queer Salon: aspects of student program work	Mainz, Germany
Fiona Souter	Keep Calm and Craft: coffee, crochet, ...	Herts., UK

Afternoon Workshops 14.6

Panel discussion	Reconstructing chaplaincy by different lights
Keith Munnings	Buddhism's contribution to Higher Education?	Derby, UK
Robin Fishwick	Free of time: thinking eternally chaplaincy	Leeds, UK
Kate Harford	Responding to Self-Harm and Other
	Mental Health Presentations in Students / Staff	Oxford Brookes, UK
Boniface Idoko	Chaplains: presence, accompaniment, witness	Benue State, Nigeria
Amy Rio	College Women and Earth Based Religions	Salem, USA

Schedule: 0900h arrivals and registration; 0930h opening keynote; 1300h lunch; 1600h close

To book go to the Booking Page, and once in the Online Store choose options 09 or 10 or 11 and the item Tuesday 14.06 09h-16h. You can also book accommodation from £41 and evening events.

Contact information: please email iache2022@sheffield.ac.uk

The Edge, Endcliffe Village, University of Sheffield and National Holocaust Museum
IACHE 2022 Global Conference, Liberty, Legacy, Leadership

Religion or Belief Equalities Day Conference (2) on

Legacy, Anti-Hate, Anti-Racism and Good Relations:

How religion or belief equalities and chaplaincy intersect with peaceful campus dialogue in the context of anti-hate and anti-racism.
Including a visit to the National Holocaust Memorial and Museum

8.30am to 9pm, Wednesday 15 June 2022

£90 standard, £60 scholarship, £51 student

This day conference has a focus on anti-hate, anti-racism and good relations, and sits within the higher education IACHE 2022 global conference. It will be relevant to leaders and managers in H.E. and chaplaincy staff both in universities and from a variety of sectors.

Keynote	Topic	University
Anthony Reddie	Colonial legacies, Brexit and anti-racism	Oxford, UK

Visit

Beth Shalom, National Holocaust Memorial and Museum

We will be travelling to the museum by coach and taking lunch in the onsite café. Afterwards, there will be a tour of the exhibition and a video testimony or an 'in person' talk by a holocaust survivor or someone who arrived in Britain on the Kindertransport.

Panel 'Peaceful campus dialogue in the context of anti-hate, anti-racism and anti-violence'.

Buffet and International Networking Marketplace

Immediately after the panel, an evening buffet and international networking market place will conclude this long and memorable day.

Schedule

0830h arrivals and registration

09h opening keynote and conference plenary

11h refreshments and depart to the National Holocaust Memorial and Museum

16h return to the conference venue

18h panel 'Peaceful campus dialogue in the context of anti-hate, anti-racism and anti-violence'

19h evening buffet and International Networking event

To book go to the Booking Page, and once in the Online Store choose options 09 or 10 or 11 and select the three items:

- 'Wednesday 15.06.2022 09h to 11h',
- 'Wednesday 15.06.2022 11h to 17h' and
- 'Wednesday 15.06.2022 17h to 21h',

plus in the Additional Extras section choose the Conference Tour

- 'National Holocaust Centre and Museum'.

You can also book accommodation from £41 at the same time.

Contact information: please email iache2022@sheffield.ac.uk

Firth Court, Western Bank,, University of Sheffield
IACHE 2022 Global Conference, Liberty, Legacy, Leadership

Religion or Belief Equalities Day Conference (3), on Leadership, Conflict and the Post-Secular University:
how religion or belief equalities and chaplaincy intersect with conflict resolution, the non-religious majority, and secular institutions
9.15am to 5.15pm Thursday 16th June 2022

£100 standard, £60 scholarship, £48 student

This day conference has a focus on religion or belief equalities, a chaplaincy response to leadership, conflict and the post-secular university and sits within the higher education IACHE 2022 global conference. It will be relevant to leaders and managers in H.E. and chaplaincy staff both in universities and from a variety of sectors.

Keynotes	Topic	University
Mohammed Abu-Nimer	Religion and peace-building in university and beyond	American, USA
Linda Woodhead	What place for religion when 'no religion' is dominant	KCL, UK
Kristin Aune	Inter-Religious leadership as Presence and Hope	Coventry, UK

Morning Workshops 16.06

James Walters/ C Howes	Deproblematizing religious diversity in secular institutions	LSE, UK
Niki van Houten	The Humanistic Campfire	Netherlands
Harvey Belovski	Inclusions and freedom of speech on campus	UJC, UK
Andii Bowsher	Getting a university's attention if its a suprahuman entity	Northumbria
Loretta Reynolds	Students serving students; training and bridge-building	Berea, USA
Darryl White Jr and Joey Haynes	Leadership development, interfaith engagement & EDI	Queens, USA Queens, USA

Afternoon Workshops 16.06

James Walters/ C Howes	Deproblematizing religious diversity in secular institutions	LSE, UK
Hogetsu Baerndal	Mindfulness stitching for wellbeing	Imperial, UK
Ron Robinson and Maya Galimidi	Leadership models from campus & kibbutz	Woffard, USA Lotan, Israel
Gavin Wort	Developing chaplaincy provision in a collegiate university	Durham, UK
Monica Sanford	Facilitating programs for the unaffiliated	RIT, USA
J Gibbens/ L Pusey	The place of evangelism and proselytism in chaplaincy	Leeds, UK

Closing Plenaries

Plenary Panel	Including the non-religious in religion or belief provision
Plenary Panel	Chaplaincies: change-agent for post-secular institutions

Schedule: 0915h arrivals and registration; 0945h opening keynote; 1300h lunch; 1700h close

To book go to the Booking Page. When in the Online Store choose option 09 or 10 or 11 and the item Thursday 16.06.2022 09h to 17h. You can also book accommodation from £41 plus the evening celebratory dinner. Contact information: please email iache2022@sheffield.ac.uk