What type of student are you?
Undergraduate
Postgraduate Taught
Postgraduate Research
Have you finished at the standard time for your course?
Is your award date between 1st February-31st March or 2nd August-30th September?
Yes
No
No
Yes
Your degree will be conferred at your graduation ceremony.
You will receive your certificate at the ceremony if you choose to attend. If you choose not to attend, your certificate will be posted to you if you have provided an address.
We will contact you when registration for your ceremony is open and you can register to attend or provide your address for your certificate.
Your degree will be conferred at the next relevant In Absentia Conferment. Details and dates of the In Absentia conferments can be found here: https://www.sheffield.ac.uk/graduation/absentia
After the conferment we will contact you with all the information you need regarding your certificate and your graduation ceremony. You will be directed to a response form, which is your opportunity to identify your wishes. If we do not receive a response from you, we will not be able to issue your certificate or invite you to a physical ceremony.
You will be given 3 options to choose from:
Your degree will be conferred at your graduation ceremony.
You will receive your certificate at the ceremony if you choose to attend. If you choose not to attend, your certificate will be posted to you if you have provided an address.
We will contact you when registration for your ceremony is open and you can register to attend or provide your address for your certificate.
1. Certificate now (No Ceremony invite)
Your certificate will be posted to you as soon as we receive it back from the printers. You will not receive an invitation to the next relevant ceremony.
2. Ceremony invite only (Certificate later)
You will be invited to the next relevant ceremony for you and you will receive your certificate at the ceremony.
3. Certificate now and Ceremony invite later
Your certificate will be posted to you as soon as we receive it back from the printers. You will also be sent an invitation to the next relevant ceremony.