

DENU103 DENTAL HYGIENE AND DENTAL THERAPY (DIP/DENTAL HYGIENE&THERAPY(FT))

(2025-2026)

(FT)

Level 1

This programme of study is non-modular.

1.

The programme of study will be pursued for twenty-seven months full-time.

2.

A student must pass or be exempted from each Examination. A student may not enter for a second (re-sit) Examination unless the student has failed in that Examination or has received special permission from the Dental School Progress Committee to do so.

3. A student will take

| | | | | |
|----------|----|--|-------|----|
| DEN11003 | F4 | Basic Oral Health Science and Clinical Practice Part I | D3 25 | 30 |
| DEN11004 | F4 | Basic Oral Health Science and Clinical Practice Part II | D3 25 | 30 |
| DEN11005 | F4 | Basic Oral Health Science and Clinical Practice Part III | D3 25 | 30 |
| DEN11006 | F4 | Basic Oral Health Science and Clinical Practice Part IV | D3 25 | 30 |

4.

For students starting the programme in April 2025: There are four parts to the BOHS&CP Examinations and a student must pass all components within each part. A student who fails to pass any part of the BOHS&CP Examinations will be required to resit the relevant components. Permission for one final attempt as part of a repeat year would require the approval of the Dental School Progress Committee. A student who is given approval for one final attempt as part of a repeat year must retake all the BOHS&CP Examinations. For students starting the programme in April 2026: There are four parts to the BOHS&CP Examinations and a student must pass all components within each part. A student who fails to pass any part of the BOHS&CP Examinations will be required to resit the relevant components.

Level 2

5. A student will take

| | | | | |
|----------|----|--|-------|----|
| DEN21006 | F5 | Intermediate Oral Health Sciences and Clinical Practice Part I | D3 25 | 0 |
| DEN21007 | F5 | Intermediate Oral Health Sciences and Clinical Practice Part II | D3 25 | 0 |
| DEN21008 | F5 | Intermediate Oral Health Sciences and Clinical Practice Part III | D3 25 | 0 |
| DEN21009 | F5 | Advanced Oral Health Science and Clinical Practice Part I | D3 25 | 40 |

6.

There are three parts to the IOHS&CP Examinations and a student must pass all components within each part. A student who fails to pass any part of the IOHS&CP Examinations will be required to resit the relevant components.

7.

There are four parts to the AOHS&CP Examinations and a student must pass all components within each part. A student who fails to pass any part of the AOHS&CP Examinations will be required to resit the relevant components.

Level 3

8. A student will take

| | | | | |
|----------|----|---|-------|----|
| DEN21010 | F5 | Advanced Oral Health Science and Clinical Practice Part II | D3 25 | 0 |
| DEN21011 | F5 | Advanced Oral Health Science and Clinical Practice Part III | D3 25 | 40 |
| DEN21012 | F5 | Advanced Oral Health Science and Clinical Practice Part IV | D3 25 | 40 |

9.

A student who has failed or was not assessed in the AOHS&CP Part II, III and IV Examinations at the first attempt will be required before entering the re-examination to undertake a further period of study approved by the Dental School Progress Committee.

10.

Successful completion of the BOHS&CP, IOHS&CP and AOHS&CP Examinations will satisfy the requirements for the Diploma in Dental Hygiene and Dental Therapy and will entitle the holder to apply for registration as a Dental Hygienist and Dental Therapist with the General Dental Council.

11.

On the recommendation of the Examiners, the Diploma in Dental Hygiene and Dental Therapy may be awarded with Distinction. In considering recommendations for the award of Distinction, Examiners will take into account students performance in the IOHS&CP and AOHS&CP Examinations.

Please note that the regulations displayed in this document reflect provision in 2025/26 and may not reflect study undertaken in other academic sessions. To see regulations that applied in another academic session, please return to the Programme Regulations Finder home screen and select the appropriate session.