

THE UNIVERSITY OF QUEENSLAND
AUSTRALIA

Maastricht Centre for Human Rights

BERKELEY CENTER ON COMPARATIVE
EQUALITY AND ANTI-DISCRIMINATION LAW
DISABILITY RIGHTS WORKING GROUP, THE
MAASTRICHT CENTRE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS,
AND THE UNIVERSITY OF QUEENSLAND
LAW SCHOOL AND UQ DISABILITY
COLLABORATORY INVITE YOU TO JOIN US
FOR
MAKING UNIVERSITIES MORE INCLUSIVE FOR STAFF WITH DISABILITIES.**

This two-day seminar will discuss best practices for the inclusion of staff with disabilities in the university environment. This seminar will draw on the expertise of Professors Paul Harpur and Lisa Waddington, as well as other experts who will present their research and lived experience of working in academia with a disability. The seminar involves experts from Europe, Oceania, North and South America, Asia and Africa and will feature panel discussions to disseminate and share knowledge on best practices.

We welcome participants from all over the world to discuss their experiences, studies, and expertise in making universities a more inclusive place for those who work there.

- Day 1: hosted by Professor Paul Harpur of the University of Queensland: October 29, 2025 at 10:00 AM AEST
- Day 2: hosted by Professor Lisa Waddington of Maastricht University: October 30, 2025 at 10:00 AM CET (UTC+1)

Please join us by registering for one or both of our webinars.

Day 1 link here

Day 2 link here

For any accommodation / adjustment requests, please contact Brittany Postle (postleb@berkeley.edu) at least 10 days prior to the event.

Thank you, and we look forward to your participation and ideas for building a more inclusive future at our educational institutions.